

Witango can provide your Web Application with a solid application framework, a simple interface for both

A highly scaleable, feature rich, visual development environment for creating and deploying

- a scalable and high-performance Application Server, available in Windows, Linux, Mac OS X and Solaris
- ability to compile your application for deployment to any J2EE compliant web server;
- support for the full range of presentation protocols such as HTML, CSS, JavaScripts and Java Applets
- a C++ and Java interface for integration of non-web interfaces to the server, eg SOAP, XML-RPC
- a rich script language of around 200 tags providing a full range of functionality to work with objects
- mail integration supporting international character sets in message text, MIME encoding, file attachments
- database connectivity with support for ODBC 3.x and the native Oracle Call Interface (OCI) available

Top 10 reasons to use Witango:

- Witango Actions and Application Builders
- True Visual Programming
- Builds Solutions FAST!
- Database connectivity via OCI, JDBC or ODBC
- Scalable and Fault Tolerant
- Deploy to Windows, Linux, Solaris, OS X or J2EE
- LDAP, SMTP, IMAP4, POP3 integration
- Powerful Script Language
- Build SOAP Web Services Fast
- Ability to build web sites on time and in budget

rayron internet services can develop Witango Web Applications for any software platform and any